A woman in a blue patterned shirt and black pants is standing and holding a document, possibly a checklist or report, while looking towards the camera. She is wearing a white face mask.

A round table with a white and red tablecloth is the center of a group of people sitting on yellow plastic chairs. They appear to be in a meeting or discussion, with some looking at documents on the table. A police officer in a light blue uniform stands nearby, observing the group.

Several women are seated at a table in the foreground, engaged in conversation. They are wearing face masks and casual attire. The room has a tiled floor and a ceiling with a grid pattern.
